

Phoebus Samartzis

Script author-Director

Graduate of the Higher Drama School of the Art Theatre "Karolos Koun". Graduate of the Department of Music Technology of the Department of Ethnomusicology of the Ionian University.

Film Directing Seminars with director Christos Godas Seminars of The Director of Photography "Life through the camera", with Argyris Theos.

He also attended a series of seminars with Professors Athanasios Zervas of the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki and Dimos Dimitriadis, assistant professor of the Ionian University.

In 2017 he collaborates with piano soloist Mirella Tyllianaki. In the context of this collaboration, he writes and directs a series of performances entitled "Monologues of Great Composers" that were also presented at the Onassis Foundation.

In 2018 he wrote and directed the play "Simandov Family", commissioned by the YadVassem Foundation, under the auspices of the organizations "Athens Free City", Region of Attica, General State Archives and E.R.T. SA.

In the same year he was an assistant in the performance of Harold Pinter's play "Old Times", directed by Yannis Houvardas, which was staged in the "Basement" of the Art Theatre "Karolos Koun"

In 2019 he co-starred in the play "Without Family" by Hector Malo, directed by Dimitris Degaitis. Among other things, film coverage of events and advertisements. He was a member of the Jury of the Youth Film Festival "CineDoc Kids" in feature films.